HISTORY

Le Mouvement d'Expression Artistique Libre is a non-profitable organization which was founded in 1986 by Mrs. Pauline Danurand Bertrand. It is an association of local artists and is situated at the Omni-Centre, Pincourt. At the beginning, its activities were focused on two medias: oil & watercolor. Today, the group has broadened its activities and welcomes other types of medias such as sculpture and photography. The group was incorporated in 2012. In 2013, it was renamed Le Mouvement d'Expression Artistique Libre.

MISSION

The group's mission is to promote art, increase the visibility of its members, and to discover local talents. M.E.A.L holds two exhibits per year and participates in several cultural events set up by the town and other regional organizations.

VIRTUAL GALLERY

Each member has an opportunity to publish up to 3 of his/her art works in the virtual gallery on the group's website, including a summary of his/her artistic background.
